Introduction

Objectives of the dissemination activities:

- Introducing the project to the academic staff, SwD, students, employers, representatives of the state and private sectors;
- Exchange of experiences, needs, and possibilities of connecting high education with job market;
- Continuation of the similar projects already done in UES;
- Initiating the cooperation between national employment services and faculties

Short description of activities

The info-day was attended by around 30 participants, students, academic staff, SwD and their parents, and representatives of National Employment Service RS, Association for the help to children and youth with special needs 'Sunce' Pale, Department of economic and social affairs, Municipality Pale, Department of economic and social affairs, Municipality of East Sarajevo, and High schools. It was organized at the Faculty of Philosophy, on Tuesday 31 May, 2016 in one of the faculty classrooms.

The info-day was opened by a welcome speech of project coordinator of "School-to-Work Transition for Higher education students with disabilities in Serbia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Montenegro" for the University of East Sarajevo, prof. dr Biljana Sladoje Bošnjak.

The first step in organizing this open info-day was to introduce this project to the SwD, students, academic staff and representatives of government and non-government sector, which was done by the project coordinator prof. dr Biljana Sladoje Bošnjak, and a member of the project team, prof. dr Zlatko Pavlović. The moderator of this info-day was a team member, Vera Vujević.

Some of the things addressed at the info-day were:

- Problems SwD face after their graduation, or during their studying;
- Problems their families face while trying to enrol their children at the faculties;
- Collaboration with government and non-government sector;
- Cooperation between universities and national employment service.

Some of the future steps that were proposed and agreed on as a conclusion and guidelines were:

- Involvement of the SwD as active participants of this project;
- Arranging a meeting with employers and SwD;
- Initiating collaboration between faculties, SwD and Center for Social Work;
- Encouraging SwD to accept benefits offered by the Municipality of Pale;
- Promoting this project in the future in order for SwD to benefit more.
