SMS INFO DAY FOR STUDENTS

Trans2Work UNSA team has organized an Info Day for students regarding activities within the project with a special emphasis on the SMS - student exchange in the countries of the region. Info day for students was held on 19th June 2017 at the Faculty of Philosophy. Participants paid close attention to mentor Merima Zukić's speech and asked questions about different aspects of student exchange realization and completing the professional practice in the countries of the region. Interested students left their contact information and expressed interest in receiving further information regarding the mentioned exchange activities. Below are some photos:
