Employers, partners on the project

2. Introduction

On 9th October 2017, AYDM has organized workshop with employers. The goal of the workshop was to inform employers with the benefits of employing persons with disabilities and to raise their awareness about this topic.

3. Short description of activities

AYDM organized workshop to inform employers about benefits they can have if they employ persons with disabilities. Topics on the workshop were: benefits and obstacles in employment of PWDs and educational level of PWDs. Trainer on the workshop was Miroslava-Mima Ivanović, Coordinator of Legal program and Anti-discrimination, who informed participants about legislation which provides framework for employment of persons with disabilities and benefits which employers can receive in this process. Employers were given place to share their experience, to express needs and give recommendations for the future improvement. Also, Uglješa Janković from Career Centre of University of Montenegro has given to participants on information about services of Career Centre of UoM and their role in the SMS process. All participants were able to get acknowledged with the web-based tool and received basic instructions how to register by representatives of EAM.

4. Next activity

Next activity will be the workshops with students with disabilities in period February-October 2018 (the date will be discussed with ASD and HO Partner).
