Media, current and prospective students with disabilities, teaching staff

2. Introduction

As enrollment period on Montenegrin universities is approaching, on 13th June 2017, AYDM organized press conference in the Youth Center in Podgorica.

On 14th June 2017, Faculties of Philosophy and Philology organized Open Door Day for prospective students where all departments had their info stands. AYDM also had a stand on the event.

About 50 participants visited both events.

3. Short description of activities

On the press conference representatives of media were informed about current activities in projects of AYDM related to education of persons with disabilities. Student advisory office and its services, as well as other activities of projects “From education towards employment” (financed by Employment Agency of Montenegro); “For youth with disabilities, without barriers” (financed by Ministry of Sport) and “Trans2Work” (financed through Erasmus+ programme) were presented. Representatives of national TV broadcaster (RTCG), TV Prva and several printed media attended the event.

On the info stand on the Open Door Day, representatives of AYDM informed all interested persons about current projects in area of education and employment of youth with disabilities. Prospective students with disabilities received information about their rights during enrollment and studies. Students with disabilities who study on these faculties were informed about activities of project “Trans2Work” and other AYDM’s activities. Teaching staff who visited the stand received information about rights of students with disabilities and obligations of teaching staff in educational process. Event was also visited by representatives of Montenegrin media (RTCG, Prva, TV Vijesti, Onogošt, TV Novi...).

4. Next activity

Next dissemination activities will be info stands on other faculties on all Montenegrin universities (state and private) during enrollment period (June-July) and workshop with employers in July.
