Short description of activities

UES Trans2Work project team together with the representatives of UES quality assurance office representative took part on 6th Panhellenic Conference of Developmental Psychology from May 10 to 13, 2018 in Thessaloniki, Greece. This conference is organized biennially by the Hellenic Psychological Society (Division of Developmental Psychology) in collaboration with a local University Department each time. This time, co-organizer is the Department of Educational and Social Policy of the University of Macedonia, Greece.

Stimulating scientific conference aimed to promote excellence in developmental psychology research, education and application on related fields, such as school, healthcare, work etc. Participants had the opportunity to attend oral and poster sessions and symposia related to the individual, social, mental, physical, professional aspects for human development. Also, issues related to the development of people with disabilities and special educational needs will be addressed. The goal of the conference was to engage participants in a creative dialogue on the fields of Developmental Psychology, to empower communication and promote scientific partnerships. On behalf of the University of East Sarajevo prof. dr Biljana Sladoje - Bošnjak and doc. dr Ranka Perucica and Nenad Markovic talked about the role of career centers in the transition process of students with disabilities from universities to labour market, and about online learning as support system for students with disability.

With both Greek and English as the official languages of the conference, a significant number of Greek and foreign researchers, practitioners and experts in the field of developmental psychology has been attracted.
