3. Introduction

The main goal of the meeting held on the 2nd of October 2018 at the Center for interdisciplinary studies of University of Sarajevo was:

- Opening ceremony of the Office for Student Support – UPS!
- Promoting the Office and the idea of inclusive education specially in the context of student support during their studies and the transition process from HEI to labour market.

4. Short description of the activity

The Office for Student Support has been opened on the 2nd of October 2018 at the Center for interdisciplinary studies of University of Sarajevo. The Office will be providing help and support to the students in different areas.

The opening ceremony started with the addressing of Sandra Bjelan – Guska, PhD, the member of Trans2Work UNSA team. The Office was opened by Rector of University of Sarajevo, professor Rifat Škrijelj. He pointed out that the Office contributes to the role of University as socially responsible institution as well as strengthens the capacities for continuous scientific, research and art work, which gather teams of domestic and international professionals, artists and students realizing the projects relevant for domestic, regional and wider social context.

The coordinator of Trans2Work UNSA team and the Office coordinator, professor Lejla Kafedžić, also addressed to the participants talking about the Project and its contribution to the Office revitalization. Students, SMS participants, Amela Bojić, Naida Hodžić i Alma Mujanović, talked about the mobility and the internship they experienced through Project activity. They also demonstrated the use of assistive technology and equipment.

The certificates of gratitude were also given to all participants who contributed to the revitalization of the Office.
